a. Inspection Preparation.

(1) The cadet commander on the head judge's signal, leads his cadets into the inspection area centering his unit on the Head Judge (4 squads of 3)

(2) The unit should then be instructed to Open Ranks by the Cadet Commander. The commander should get the unit ready by "Aligning the Platoon" (Dress Right Dress and Cover).

(3) The unit is then ready to be inspected by the judges. Formation in this manner allows all of the judges the best alignment for the inspection process. Failure to form the unit in this manner will result in a significant point deduction on the Inspection Score sheet.

b. Inspection Judging. At this point the Cadet Commander will report into the inspection, "Sir/Ma'am". Upon completion of this report in, the event Head Judge, as well as the other three judges, will begin the inspection. The Head Judge will briefly inspect the Cadet Commander, and then move on to the first row of cadets. The other judges will take the 2nd, 3rd and 4th ranks. This ensures each cadet is fronted and inspected by a judge.

c. Related Inspection Matters.

(1) Male hair length should correspond to Army JROTC Standards. No hair may touch the collar. Females with long hair will have their hair "put-up" to ensure conformity to the Army JROTC Standard. General appearance should be well groomed and uniforms should be well prepared.

(2) Teams will be inspected using the authorized Army JROTC uniform as the standard. All cadets should wear all ribbons that have been awarded. No exceptions.

(3) Leather soles or corafram shoes are appropriate wear for all portions of the competition. While poromerics are comparatively easy to maintain, leather shoes will require a great deal more effort to achieve the same appearance and must be so maintained. Should corafram shoes be worn, the judging standard will demand absolute perfection to achieve the same score as a well maintained leather shoe.

d. Cadet Verbal Responses.

ATCC-DDJ

ANNEX A (Description of Events) to Fourth Brigade JROTC Drill Team Competition Standard Operating Procedures (SOP)

(1) Inspection will include questions asked to determine a cadet's poise, confidence, and overall military/government/historical knowledge, along with specific questions about the Army.

Examples of possible questions include the following:

Basic Level (Every Cadet should know all of these)

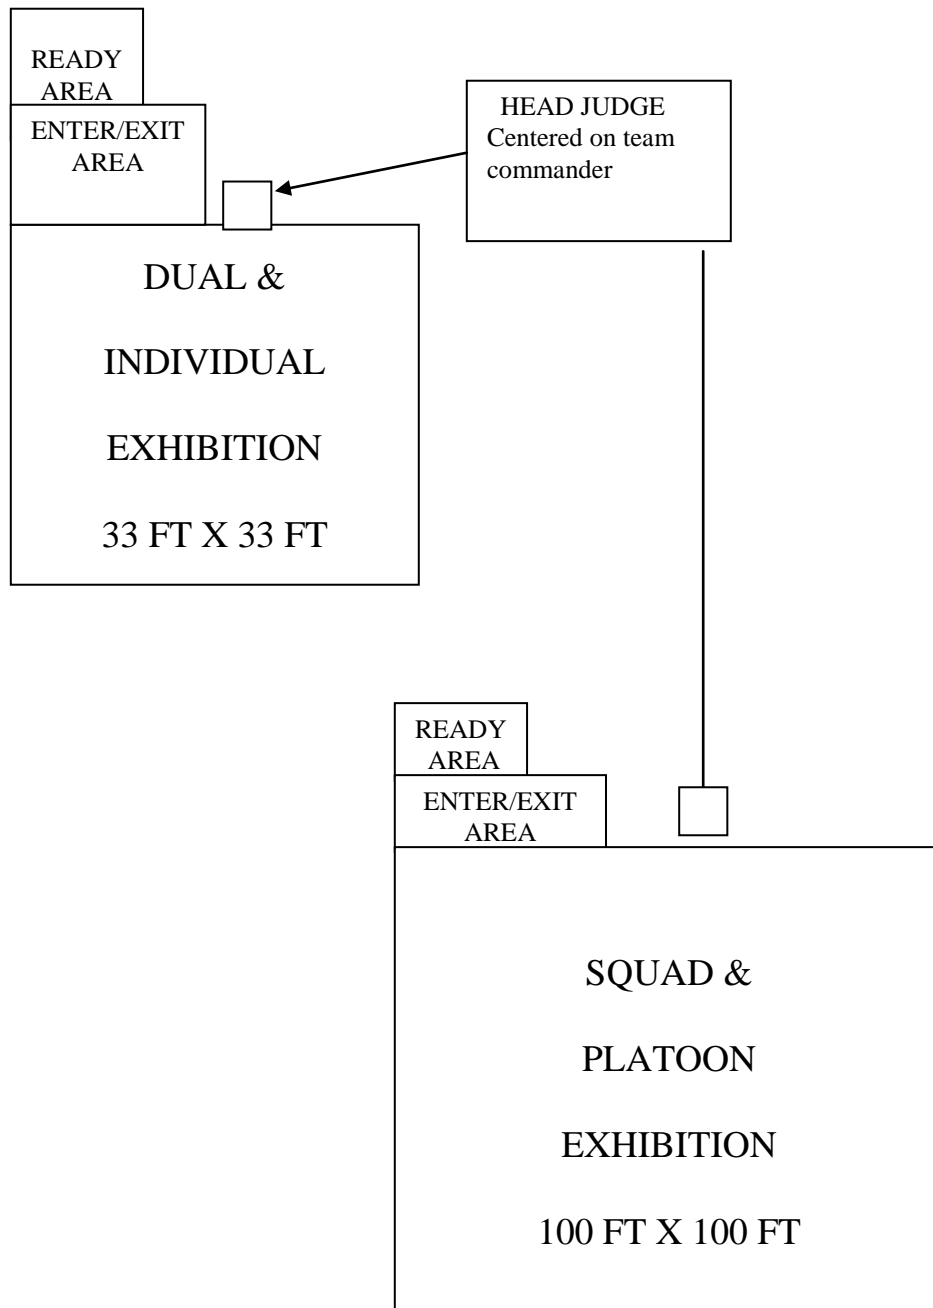

- Name of present and very recent past Presidents and Vice Presidents
- A question about any accessory on the cadet's uniform
- Their respective service chain of command from the Commander-in-Chief down to their JROTC instructors

- Home State capital. Nation's capital
- Common knowledge of current events, as well as, topics covered in the JROTC classes

Note: Only the platoon being inspected is allowed in the inspection room. Spectators should be from the same school. Violators will be disqualified.

(2) While it is rare, a judge may incorrectly apply a regulation from their service to that of your team's service branch. If your cadets feel a rule has been incorrectly applied to their unit, DON'T ARGUE THE POINT WITH THE JUDGE! If the judge presses a point a cadet feels is incorrect, the correct response should be: "Sir/Ma'am, I have been instructed that "thus and so" is correct". Don't lose military bearing!
